Professor Allan Fels is Dean of the Australia and New Zealand School of Government (ANZSOG). This is a new institution established by the governments of Australia, New Zealand, Victoria, New South Wales, Queensland and Western Australia, and twelve universities and business schools. It provides senior management development programs, including an Executive Master of Public Administration program, for high level public sector managers. Professor Fels is also a member of our Visiting Faculty.

Professor Fels was Chairman of the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission from 1995 until 30 June, 2003. Prior to that he was Chairman of the Trade Practices Commission from 1991 to 1995 and Chairman of the Prices Surveillance Authority from 1989 to 1992.

Professor Fels was previously Dean of the Graduate School of Management of Monash University. He was appointed a Professor of Administration at Monash University in 1984. He has been an Honorary Professor in the Faculty of Economics and Business at Monash University since 1996 and is now also Professorial Fellow in the Department of Political Science at the University of Melbourne.
